

Fairbanks International Airport General Aviation Association (GAA)
Spring Meeting – April 24, 2018
Draft Meeting Notes

Rod Combellick, President of GAA

Introduction to GAA and GAA officers
Summary of recent GAA activities

Melissa Osborn, Chief of Operations, Fairbanks Int'l Airport

Overview of Taxiway B upgrade this summer
Brief report on two taxiway incursions this winter

Alexa Greene, DOWL (planning consultants)

Overview of 2020 East Ramp Redevelopment Master Plan schedule
She will be publishing an online pilot survey in the near future – please participate

John Eisenmayer, ATC Fairbanks Pilot Outreach Group

Reviewed float pond operation procedures
Reviewed Chena Marina and Metro Field operation procedures
Reviewed TRSA operation procedures
Reported on a near mid-air collision between AK Airlines 737 and GA (possible TriPacer)
Contact them with any concerns at: faipilotoutreach@gmail.com
Tower can be reached by phone at: (* phones are being recorded)
Operations area 474-0452*
Administration 474-0050* or 474-9395

Jamie Kunkler, Anchorage TRACON Lead

Special presentation on VFR to/from Anchorage area airports

Nick Ankrom, Fairbanks Flight Service

PIREPs - Behind the Curtain
How FSS enters & distributes PIREPS
Short course on River Watch and ice condition reporting

Tom George, Alaska Regional Manager, AOPA

Quick update on expected changes to R-2205 and new R-2201 at Ft. Greely
New Special Use Airspace Information Service outlet on Donnelly Dome – 126.3MHz
Heads up about GPS testing during all major exercises
If you are impacted, report it to ATC or FSS ASAP, plus online form when at computer
HAARP ops transferred to UAF. So it will be handled as TFR when operational.
Ops control will be active on 123.3MHz when HAARP is operating Recreational Aviation Foundation will have a work party at Peavine strip on July 13-15, 2018

Rod Combellick

Announcements and upcoming events notices
Business Meeting
Approved notes from last meeting by acclaim
Brief Treasurer's report
Adjourned